SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[File No. 500-1]

USA Talks.com, Inc.; Order of Suspension of Trading

January 29, 1999.

It appears to the Securities and Exchange Commission that there is a lack of current and accurate information concerning the securities of USA Talks.com, Inc. ("USA Talks") because of questions regarding the accuracy of assertions by USA Talks in statements made to the market makers of the stock of USA Talks, to other broker-dealers, and to investors concerning, among other things, the status and extent of USA Talks' business operations.

The Commission is of the opinion that the public interest and the protection of investors require a suspension of trading in the securities of the above-listed company.

Therefore, it is ordered, pursuant to Section 12(k) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, that trading in the above-listed company is suspended for the period from 9:30 a.m. EST, January 29, 1999, through 11:59 p.m. EST, February 11, 1999.

By the Commission.

Margaret H. McFarland,

Deputy Secretary.

Polus, Inc.; Order of Suspension of Trading

January 29, 1999.

It appears to the Securities and Exchange Commission that there is a lack of adequate and accurate current information concerning the securities of Polus, Inc. ("Polus"), a Colorado corporation that has no apparent operations. Questions have been raised about (1) the lack of meaningful publicly-available financial information, and (2) the adequacy and accuracy of publicly-disseminated information concerning, among other things, a merger involving Smartek, Inc., of which it is the majority owner.

The Commission is of the opinion that the public interest and the protection of investors require a suspension of trading in the securities of the above listed company.
